In most of the Hindu mythology and religious text chardham yatra can be seen signifying immense spiritual value. Not only to human beings but these places of pilgrimage have been a place of worship to different God and Goddess In Hinduism.

Over the years numerous people have visited these holy sites and experienced divination and peace to the core of their souls. Not only these places have witnessed millions of devotees who come with a wishes and prayers to almighty have seen wonders in their lives by attaining peacefulness and bliss.

We always feel ourselves as few of the fortunate who not only provide a glimpse into these heavenly places that dev bhumi has to offer but we also make sure that whether it is travel enthusiasts, devotees or any nature lover it is our responsibility that you not only take back the expected joyful and scenic memories but also a deep touch of nature, devotion and culture with all safety and comfort.

Presenting to you one of the most beautiful and spiritual offering of Uttrakhand CHAR DHAM YATRA PACKAGE.

Most of us are well aware of this divine journey but we will give you a brief description of what you are going to experience in the 9Days and 10night package. Starting with the Dhams itself the first one is Yamunotri Dham.

QUICK VIEW

YAMUNOTRI DHAM

Located at a height of 3293 meters above sea level in Uttarkashi district Yamunotri Dham is the origin place of one of the Holiest rivers of India The Yamuna river. This place of worship has one of the most breath-taking and magnificent views of natural beauty including snow covered peaks and rare species of flora and fauna. Not to forget this place offers a steep 5km trek to reach the temple dedicated to river Yamuna where you can either walk or take ponies or mules to reach. If thermal springs and Glaciers excite you then this place will definitely leave a beautiful mark on your memories that you can recall whenever and wherever you are.

GANGOTRI DHAM

Next up to the Journey we have Gangotri Dham. When it comes to River Ganges everyone is known to its holiness and Divinity. And what could be better to witness it's very source and that too with all majestic views around it. Gangotri Dham is the place where it is believed that river Ganga was flown by Lord Shiva himself thus making it an epitome of spirituality for every Hindu. River Ganga originates from Gangotri glacier at Gaumukh which is roughly 20kms from the town itself. At this altitude the temple's view and surrounding is something that cannot be found anywhere around the world which makes it at least once a visit in a lifetime.

QUICK VIEW

KEDARNATH DHAM

On the third phase of our Journey we have Kedarnath Dham. 3583 metres yes this is the altitude where This is Kedarnath temple is situated in Rudraprayag district of Uttarakhand. This is one of the Holiest temple dedicated to lord Shiva. Every year just like other Dhams it attracts thousands of Devotees and also Trekking enthusiasts. Reason being to reach Kedarnath temple one has to trek 16kms as Gaurikund is the last motorable stop after which you can either take the trail by walk or take ponies or mules to reach the top. While moving to the temple you will witness Scenic views of places like 'Jungle Chatti', 'Bheem Bali', 'Linchauli' and Kedarnath Base Camp.

BADRINATH DHAM

Dedicated to none other than Lord vishnu At an altitude of 3300 metres, Badrinath Dham is one of the holiest pilgrimage site among char dham and is situated in chamoli district of Uttarakhand. Legends has this that Lord Vishnu meditated under Badri (Tree) hence it got its name Badrinath. Not only this but context to both Kedarnath and Badrinath can be easily found in many Hindu scriptures and religious books. A little wait in the queue for Dharshans and you will have ultimate connect of sight and soul with with the divine itself. Unlike kedarnath, Badrinath temple is accessible by road so we will make sure you reach the temple Hassel free.

Not to forget that these places not only will provide you the spiritual essence but also these sites located in the Himalayan region carry some very rare species of birds, animals trees and other vegetation which are renowned worldwide. Before sharing the action plan with you we would also like to remind you that these places are at very high altitudes so we always urge our travellers to get themselves medically checked so that they can make best out of the journey. We will ensure your safety and comfort during the journey and some extra care and love for our elderly travellers.
